

Euregio Koi Show 2020

1. Organization of the Euregio Koi Show is organized by Koi Club, The Netherlands.

2. Registration/Participation

The participation in the Koi competition is open to everyone. Participation is only possible after registration. After registration you will receive an invoice. The invoice is also the certificate of registration (if paid). The payment must be made to the account of Koi Club, The Netherlands, before the payment date stated on the invoice. The registration is only definite if the registration fee has been debited from the account of Koi Club, The Netherlands.

Per participant a maximum of 14 Koi per tank can be registered, where the total length of all Koi should not exceed 4,50 cm per tank. This related to the maximum permissible load of the competition. The total length of all Koi in a tank must be at least 100cm. The Koi should be a minimum length of 15cm.

Each participant will in principle be assigned three tanks each. The cost per tank is €85,-for hobbyists and for traders €-130,- Full is full at all times. All Koi participating in the competition must be hardened (approx. 7 days before the competition. Ponds with alga 14 days) this is to save contamination in the tanks as far as possible. Please note that this is for the well-being of your own fish! Each participating hobbyist receives two tickets per day. Participation in the competition is completely at your own risk. Enrolling/participating can only be done under one name, address, or dealer.

3. Registration for the competition

On the 5 of June 2020 from 9.00 – 18.00 hours, the participants can introduce the Koi that are taking part in the competition by presenting the application form (= invoice) The participant must go in person to report to the Secretary on the show terrain. If a participating hobbyist gives his Koi to a dealer, he must be personally present at the registration.

Deviating from this is only possible when written permission has been confirmed in advance from the competition officials. The competition officials are responsible for tagging and numbering every Koi. The competition officials and the participant sign the benching form and each retain a copy. The participant will need this copy to pick up the Koi on Sunday after the competition. After registration the participant needs to follow the directions of the competition officials.

The competition officials will take a photo of each Koi. When participating with a Koi in the competition, the participant gives all photo credits to Koi Club, The Netherlands.

The participants are not allowed to bring or fetch Koi in or out of the competition tanks or to pick them out of the tanks with nets, unless it is explicitly requested from the competition officials or benching team. Not even for photographic purposes, unless the competition officials may determine that this has been decided by the organization.

A Koi from size 6 and bigger will only be placed in and out of the tank by the owner, but under the supervision of the benching team.

4. Benching:

Sick Koi will be excluded from participation in the competition and will need to be returned. The same applies if you have more than 4m Koi per tank. Paid entry fees will not be refunded.

The Koi are classified in the following varieties and classes:

Varieties:

Kohaku

Sanke

Showa

Utsurimono

Bekko

Asagi / Shusui

Goromo / Goshiki

Tancho (Go-Sanke, incl. Doitsu en Ginrin)

Kinginrin A (Go-Sanke)

Kinginrin B (Non Go-Sanke)

Kawari Muji(mono) (alle eenkleurige Kawarimono zoals Chagoi, Soragoi en Benigoi)

Kawari Moyo(mono) (alle meerkleurige Kawarimono)

Hikari Muji(mono) (incl. Kin Matsuba, Gin Matsuba)

Hikari Moyo(mono)

Hikari Utsuri(mono)

Doitsu A (Go-Sanke)

Doitsu B (Non Go-Sanke)

GO-SANKE = variëteiten KOHAKU, SANKE en SHOWA

NON GO-SANKE = alle overige variëteiten

Classes:

1: > 15 – 20 cm

2: > 20 – 30 cm

3: > 30 – 40 cm

4: > 40 – 50 cm

5: > 50 – 60 cm

6: > 60 – 70 cm

7: > 71 – 80 cm

8: > 80 – >> cm

5. Judging:

The jury will start by choosing the Grand Champion and the Supreme Champion and approval of the Jumbo Champion (largest Koi of the competition). These three Koi will no longer compete for other prizes.

After that, the jury will give a first and second prize for each variety/class, but will retain the right to grant no prize in the case of insufficient quality.

Next, the jury will choose the Champion in size for each class and the Champion in variety of all sizes for each variety.

The following other prizes will be awarded:

Grand Champion A (Go-Sanke)
Grand Champion B (Non Go-Sanke)
Supreme Champion
Jumbo Champion (size 7 en 8)
Mature Champion (size 7 en 8)
Adult Champion (size 5 en 6)
Young Champion (size 3 en 4)
Baby Champion (size 1 en 2)
Senior Tategoi (size 4, 5 en 6)
Junior Tategoi (size 1, 2 en 3)
Most Unique

In addition, a variety of foreign friendship prizes will be shared out. It is possible that the competition officials, where appropriate and in consultation with the members of the jury, can be distributed otherwise. We aim to announce the prize winners on Saturday afternoon or as soon as possible and this will be displayed on the boards behind the tanks.

The awards ceremony will be on Sunday, June 7, 2020 about 13:30.

6. End of competition:

After the award ceremony the competition officials will announce when the de-benching will begin. During de-benching the participant will, upon presentation of the application form, receive back their Koi. Only upon presentation of the application form, will competition officials release the Koi! It is prohibited to remove the Koi out of the tanks before the awards ceremony has ended. If participants do so, they are indefinitely excluded from Koi competitions by Koi club, The Netherlands.

Participants must collect their Koi on Sunday, June 7, 2020.

Exception to this rule is only possible with a written agreement from the competition officials. This should be requested before the show. For organizational reasons there will be no more automatic water renewal from Sunday June 7th 2020, at 19:00pm.

After the end of the benching the owner is solely responsible for the care and supervision of their Koi.

7. General

The competition officials may at any time, decide to deviate from the rules of procedure. In some cases, where the rules and procedures are not clear, the officials will decide.

Koi Club, The Netherlands reserves the right to refuse hobbyists or traders taking part in the Koi competition, without giving any reason. Koi Club, The Netherlands is not liable for damages, however arising, on participating Koi. Photos of participating Koi can be used for publishing purposes.

Traders are (also hobbyists) engaged in trade/sale of Koi or related articles (whether or not registered in/at the Chamber of Commerce). Hobbyists are advised against this.

Participants are not allowed to advertise in any form whatsoever, applying to the tanks or depositing in the water.

Participation is at your own risk. Each participant is deemed to have read all the regulations.

8. General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR)

Within the framework of the European law on the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR), the exhibitor hereby gives permission to the Koiclubnederland (hereinafter referred to as KCN.) for the following actions:

- Making (atmospheric) photographs of the stands by photographers of the KCN
- Taking photos of the exhibitor (or delegate) during the Award Ceremony.
- Placing photos on the website of KCN

(www.euregiokoishow.nl and / or Facebook and Instagram)

The KCN. will only perform the above-mentioned actions if you have given specific permission for this and will handle your details as a contest participant with the utmost care.

